[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

2 Plaintiff DIRECTV, LLC (“DIRECTV”) and Plaintiffs the States of California, the State of 3 Colorado, the State of Connecticut, the State of Illinois, the State of New York, the State of North
4 Carolina, the State of Oregon, and the Commonwealth of Virginia (“States” or “Plaintiff States”)
5 filed Complaints in this matter on March 18, 2026 seeking a preliminary and permanent injunction
6 enjoining Defendant Nexstar Media Group, Inc.’s (“Nexstar”) acquisition of Defendant TEGNA 7 Inc. (“TEGNA,” and, together with Nexstar, “Defendants”)¹ (the acquisition herein referred to as 8 the “Transaction”) pursuant to Sections 7 and 16 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 18, 26. On March 9 19, 2026, the Department of Justice (“DOJ”) terminated its review of the merger early and the 10 Media Bureau of the Federal Communications Commission (“FCC”) announced it had approved 11 the transfer of TEGNA’s broadcast licenses to Nexstar. Minutes later, Defendants announced they 12 had closed the transaction. On March 20, 2026, Plaintiffs sought temporary restraining orders. On 13 March 27, 2026 this Court granted Plaintiff DIRECTV’s Motion for Temporary Restraining Order
14 to prevent integration and consolidation of the two Defendants pending this Court’s determination 15 of whether a preliminary injunction shall issue. On March 31, 2026, the Court consolidated the 16 DIRECTV and States actions, and converted Plaintiff States’ motion for temporary restraining 17 order into a motion for preliminary injunction. After reviewing the briefing submitted by the parties 18 and all supporting materials, the pleadings on file, and considering the arguments made at the April 19 7, 2026 hearing, Plaintiffs’ Motions for Preliminary Injunction ARE GRANTED. The terms of 20 Order are as set forth on pages 5-9 of this decision. The Court incorporates in its entirety its prior 21 reasoning and analysis set forth in the TRO Order (Dkt. 60), with the following additions and 22 clarifications based on the parties’ briefing and submissions:

23 I. Factual Additions and Clarifications

- 24 1. Evidentiary support for pages 2–6 of the TRO Order, upon which the Court continues to 25 rely may be found in the TRO Affidavit of Robert D. Thun ¶¶ 1–32 (Dkt. 14-2); Nexstar’s 26

27 ¹ For the avoidance of doubt, any reference to TEGNA in this Order encompasses the “Surviving 28 Entity,” into which Nexstar’s subsidiary, Teton Merger Sub Inc., was merged to consummate this transaction.

1 and Tegna’s 10K filings and investor presentations and remarks, as well as industry reports, 2 which were submitted as Exhibits 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 10, 12, and 13 to the Declaration of Justin 3 P. Raphael (Dkt. 14-42); the Declaration of Justin P. Raphael ¶ 15 (Dkt. 14-42); the TRO
4 Declaration of Carl Shapiro ¶ 74 and associated Table (Dkt. 14-3); the Declaration of Robert 5 E. Bowen ¶¶ 2–16, 18, 19 and the Exhibits attached to that Declaration (Dkt. 14-4); the 6 Declaration of Olivier N. Antoine (Dkt. 14-56); the Affidavit of Glenn D. Pomerantz ¶ 4 7 (Dkt. 14-57); the TRO Declaration of Xiaonan April Hu and Exhibits 1, 2, 3, and 4 of that 8 Declaration (Dkt. 56-2); and Exhibits. 1-6 & 9-10 of the Declaration of Connie Sung (No.
9 2:26-cv-00978, Dkt. 27-2).

10 2. Additional evidentiary support for pages 7–16 of the TRO Order, and upon which the Court 11 continues to rely, may be found in the TRO Declaration of Carl Shapiro ¶¶ 22, 51, 54, 55, 12 76, 78, 80, and supporting Tables (Dkt. 14-3); the Affidavit of Robert Thun ¶¶ 11, 12, 18, 13 19, 20, 22 (Dkt. 14-2); Exhibits. 1-10 of the Declaration of Connie Sung (No. 2:26-cv-14 00978, Dkt. 27-2); Defendants’ public statements and SEC filings and other industry 15 participant statements attached as Exhibits 1, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 to the Declaration 16 of Justin P. Raphael (Dkt. 14-42); and the Department of Justice’s prior Competitive Impact 17 Statements, cited in the TRO briefing and now attached as Exhibits 17, 18, 19 to the 18 Declaration of Xiaonan April Hu in support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Injunction.

19 3. Additional evidentiary support for pages 16–17 of the TRO Order, and upon which the 20 Court continues to rely, may be found in the TRO Affidavit of Robert Thun (Dkt. 14-2), 21 and Exhibits 1-6 & 9-10 of the Declaration of Connie Sung (No. 2:26-cv-00978, Dkt. 27-22 2).

23 4. Upon review of the parties’ additional submissions in connection with a preliminary 24 injunction, the Court additionally credits and relies upon the following in support of its 25 preliminary injunction: the Affidavit of Robert D. Thun in support of Plaintiff’s Motion for 26 Preliminary Injunction, the Declaration of Carl Shapiro in support of Plaintiff’s Motion for 27 Preliminary injunction, Exhibits 1–19 attached to the Declaration of Xiaonan April Hu in 28 support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Injunction, Exhibits 1-8 of the Declaration of 1 Laura Antonini (Dkt. 109-1), the Declaration of Jon Schleuss (Dkt. 109-11), and the 2 Declaration of Jessica Gonzalez (Dkt. 109-12).

3 II. Legal Clarifications and Additions

- 4 5. Plaintiffs seek a prohibitory injunction, not a mandatory injunction.
- 5 6. “A mandatory injunction orders a responsible party to take action, while a prohibitory 6 injunction prohibits a party from taking action and preserves the status quo pending a 7 determination of the action on the merits.” Arizona Dream Act Coalition v. Brewer, 757 8 F.3d 1053, 1060 (9th Cir. 2014) (internal quotation marks omitted). “The relevant status 9 quo is that between the parties pending a resolution of a case on the merits,” id. at 1061 10 (citation omitted), and refers to the “last uncontested status which preceded the pending 11 controversy,” GoTo.com v. Walt Disney, Co., 202 F.3d 1199, 1210 (9th Cir. 2000) 12 (emphasis added) (citation omitted). As relevant here, the Ninth Circuit has concluded that 13 when Defendants “affirmatively change[] th[e] status quo,” a request to restore the status 14 quo is “prohibitory.” Arizona Dream, 757 F.3d at 1061 (citation omitted).
- 15 7. Even if construed as a mandatory injunction, however, a hold-separate order is appropriate 16 here. Plaintiffs have made a sufficiently strong showing on the merits of its claim to entitle 17 them to a hold-separate order, irrespective of whether the heightened standard for 18 mandatory injunctive relief applies. Furthermore, Defendants were on notice as early as 19 March 10 that State regulators were scrutinizing the merger, when the State of California 20 asked Defendants to consider entering into an agreement not to close while the State of 21 California completed its investigation. Declaration of Connie Sung ¶ 3 (No. 2:26-cv-978 22 (E.D. Cal. 2026), Dkt. 27-2). Certainly, Defendants were on full notice (once the States and 23 DIRECTV filed their respective Complaints, that Plaintiffs were seeking to enjoin the 24 merger to preserve Nexstar’s and TEGNA’s independence from one another. Pomerantz 25 Affidavit ¶ 4 (Dkt. 14-57). To the extent Defendants undertook affirmative actions 26 afterwards to integrate TEGNA, thereby disturbing the status quo, they did so at their own 27 peril. See Jones v. Sec. & Exch. Comm’n, 298 U.S. 1, 17–18 (1936) (“[A]fter a defendant 28 has been notified of the pendency of a suit seeking an injunction . . . he acts at his peril and

1 subject to the power of the court to restore the status quo[.]”); Tinoqui-Chalola Council of 2 Kitanemuk & Yowlumne Tejon Indians v. U.S. Dep’t of Energy, 232 F.3d 1300, 1305 (9th
3 Cir. 2000); FTC. v. Weyerhaeuser Co., 648 F.2d 739, 741 (D.C. Cir. 1981).

4 8. Previously, the Court declined to address Plaintiff DIRECTV’s argument that it “will suffer 5 irreparable harm in the form of losing customer goodwill it has spent decades establishing.”
6 TRO Order at 17 n.5. The Court does so now. Unlike in FTC v. Qualcomm, 969 F.3d 974 7 (9th Cir. 2020), DIRECTV is not relying on “actual or alleged harms to customers and 8 consumers outside the relevant markets.” Id. at 993. Rather, Plaintiff asserts that it will lose 9 customer goodwill because the merger will enable Nexstar to threaten more painful 10 blackouts, which will force DIRECTV to either endure blackouts of multiple Big Four 11 stations in a DMA or agree to substantially increased retransmission fees, which costs will 12 be passed on in part to DIRECTV’s customers. DIRECTVf has submitted evidence that 13 either outcome damages its brand for high quality and reliable coverage.

14 9. The loss of DIRECTV’s goodwill among its customers and the damage to DIRECTV’s 15 reputation is a harm to DIRECTV—not a harm suffered by other parties in different 16 markets, as was the case in Qualcomm. While DIRECTV may have weathered blackouts 17 before, the Court is persuaded that the merger’s creation of more than 30 Nexstar 18 duopolies—which dwarfs the number of duopolies Nexstar possessed premerger—will 19 substantially exacerbate the harms to Plaintiff DIRECTV’s reputation and goodwill caused 20 by blackouts. That harm, in addition to the harms identified by this Court in its TRO Order, 21 is irreparable. See Stuhlberg Int’l Sales Co. v. John D. Brush & Co., 240 F.3d 832, 841 (9th 22 Cir. 2001) (“Evidence of threatened loss of prospective customers or goodwill certainly 23 supports a finding of the possibility of irreparable harm.”).

24 10. Finally, preliminary injunctive relief is necessary to preserve this Court’s ability to 25 “prevent[] the irreparable loss of rights before judgment.” Textile Unlimited, Inc. v. ABMH
26 & Co., 240 F.3d 781, 786 (9th Cir. 2001); see also Doe #1 v. Trump, 957 F.3d 1050, 1068 27 (9th Cir. 2020). It is undisputed that Defendants’ integration efforts “are exactly those that 28 would make it more difficult to divest TEGNA stations, eliminate competition, and result

1 in newsroom layoffs and shutdowns.” TRO Order at 19. Only a preliminary injunction here
2 will ensure that Defendants do not “bleed” TEGNA of “substantial assets and restructure” 3 in a manner that would thwart a divestiture order at the end of a trial on the merits. Tasty 4 Baking Co. v. Ralston Purina, Inc., 653 F. Supp. 1250, 1277 (E.D. Pa. 1987); see also 5 United States v. Acorn Eng’g Co., 1981 WL 2112, at *3 (N.D. Cal. June 18, 1981).

6 11. Plaintiff States have standing to challenge the merger. The States bring suit as parens
7 patriae on behalf of and to protect the health and welfare of their residents and the general
8 economies of their respective states. The States have adequately alleged that the merger 9 threatens their quasi-sovereign interests in the “economic well-being” of their citizens, 10 and that the likely harms of the merger—including increased cable and satellite bills, and 11 reductions in the quality, quantity, and diversity of perspectives in local news 12 programming—impact a substantial share of the States’ populations. See Texas v. Google
13 LLC, 764 F. Supp. 3d 500, 510 (E.D. Tex. 2025); New York v. Microsoft Corp., 209 F.
14 Supp. 2d 132, 150-52 (D.D.C. 2002).

15 12. The Court finds that Plaintiff States are likely to succeed in establishing that the merger will 16 likely result in higher retransmission fees, and thus higher prices to consumers. As the Court 17 has recognized, the merger gives Defendants greater leverage to extract higher fees in 18 retransmission negotiations with the MVPDs—leverage that Nexstar itself acknowledged 19 when promising to deliver investors “rate increases” and “positive growth in net retrains 20 [sic] growth.” TRO Order at 14 (quoting Nexstar CEO Perry Sook); see also Shapiro PI
21 Decl. (ECF No. 109-10) ¶ 24. Ample evidence supports that retransmission fee increases 22 are eventually passed on in the form of increased prices to consumers. See (Torres Decl.
23 (ECF No. 27-12, No. 2:26-cv-00978) ¶ 2; Thun Decl. (ECF No. 14-2) ¶ 12); Antonini Decl.
24 (ECF No. 109-1), Exs. 5-8.

25 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

- 26 1. Plaintiffs’ Motions for Preliminary Injunction are GRANTED.
- 27 2. Defendants and all of their respective agents, employees, or attorneys, shall be and hereby
- 28 are restrained and enjoined from all actions relating to integration and consolidation of

- 1 Nexstar and TEGNA until after 11:59 PM Eastern Time on the fourteenth (14th) day after 2 final judgment is entered in this matter. Defendants must immediately cease all ongoing 3 actions relating to integration and consolidation of Nexstar and TEGNA.
- 4 3. Nexstar must permit TEGNA to continue operating as a separate and distinct, independently 5 managed business unit from Nexstar, and Nexstar must put measures in place to maintain 6 TEGNA as an ongoing, economically viable, and active competitor independent of Nexstar 7 management. TEGNA shall have management separate from, and not reporting to, 8 Nexstar's management that operates TEGNA in the ordinary course consistent with pre-9 closing practices.
- 10 4. Nexstar must immediately put in place internal controls and procedures to prevent the 11 sharing of competitively sensitive Nexstar and TEGNA information, including any 12 information related to retransmission consent negotiations, between Nexstar and TEGNA.
13 These firewalls may include providing instructions to employees and contractors, and 14 issuing an antitrust corporate policy regarding such firewalls.
- 15 5. Nexstar must not influence the management of the held-separate TEGNA business unit.
16 TEGNA personnel and management must maintain control over TEGNA's decision-17 making, including with respect to retransmission consent agreements and negotiations, 18 newsroom personnel, operations and programming, product and service offerings, product 19 development, advertisement sales, and personnel. Nexstar must not hire, terminate, transfer, 20 or otherwise alter the terms of employment of any TEGNA officers or employees.
- 21 6. Nexstar must hold separate all assets, rights, and licenses acquired as a result of the 22 Transaction. All assets held by TEGNA or its direct or indirect subsidiaries at the time of 23 consummation should be maintained within TEGNA and must not be transferred to any 24 other entity, including any Nexstar affiliate other than TEGNA or one of its pre-existing 25 direct or indirect subsidiaries.
- 26 7. Defendants shall take all steps necessary to ensure that (a) the local television broadcast
27 stations owned by TEGNA immediately prior to the Transaction (the "Acquired Stations") 28 will be maintained and operated as independent, ongoing, economically viable, and active

1 competitors in the business of licensing retransmission consent to MVPDs; (b) each of 2 Nexstar and the held-separate TEGNA business unit will not influence the management of 3 the stations owned by the other entity immediately prior to the Transaction; and (c) the 4 books, records, competitively sensitive information, and decision-making concerning the 5 production, distribution, provision, or sale of products or services by or under any of the 6 Acquired Stations will be kept separate and apart from all other stations owned by Nexstar 7 immediately prior to the Transaction and any of Nexstar's other operations.

8 8. Defendants shall use all reasonable efforts to preserve, in accordance with current practice, 9 the existing relationships of TEGNA and of each Acquired Station with each MVPD 10 retransmitting its programming, with each network providing affiliation and programming, 11 and with others doing business with the Acquired Stations.

12 9. Defendants shall use all reasonable efforts to maintain at 2025 or previously approved levels 13 for 2026, whichever are higher, all station operations, staffing, promotional, advertising, 14 sales, technical assistance, marketing, and merchandising support for the Acquired Stations.

15 10. Defendants shall, to the extent permitted by the terms and conditions of the FCC's 16 Equity/Debt Plus rule (47 C.F.R. § 73.3555, note 2(i)), provide sufficient working capital 17 and lines and sources of credit to continue to maintain the Acquired Stations as 18 economically viable and competitive, ongoing businesses.

19 11. Defendants shall maintain, in accordance with sound accounting principles, separate, 20 accurate, and complete financial ledgers, books, and records for each Acquired Station that 21 report on a periodic basis, such as the last business day of every month, consistent with past 22 practices, the assets, liabilities, expenses, revenues, and income of that station.

23 12. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall not be a violation of this Order for Nexstar to:

- 24 a. undertake ordinary-course cash management, ordinary-course intercompany 25 transfers, and ordinary-course debt service and repayment activities necessary to 26 comply with Nexstar's financing obligations, including refinancing activities, 27 security perfection, and guaranty, provided that Nexstar does not use this provision 28 as a pretext to undermine TEGNA's viability as a going concern;

- 1 b. take reasonable actions necessary to maintain TEGNA’s day-to-day operations, 2 including authorizing routine financial transactions such as wire transfers for 3 ordinary course payments;
- 4 c. take actions necessary to establish a functional governance structure for TEGNA, 5 including appointing or reappointing officers, to the extent necessary to permit 6 TEGNA to fulfill its obligations under this Order, provided however that Nexstar 7 shall not appoint current Nexstar employees, or former employees employed within 8 the prior six months, as TEGNA officers and no TEGNA officer shall be an officer 9 of Nexstar;
- 10 d. provide and implement Sarbanes-Oxley requirements, including setting thresholds 11 for ordinary course contract approval, expenditure authorization, and other financial 12 limits similar to the interim operating covenants that applied to TEGNA’s 13 independent management of the business pre-closing;
- 14 e. take all reasonable steps to perform all obligations required under its debt 15 instruments, SEC reporting requirements, or refinancing transactions, including 16 coordination with TEGNA personnel as necessary, provided that such coordination 17 is narrowly tailored to complying with reporting requirements and avoiding 18 breaches under debt instruments; such permissible coordination includes 19 coordination necessary to complete SEC and debt agreement reporting for the 20 combined company within applicable deadlines, oversight by Nexstar management 21 as to the accuracy of the TEGNA financial statements, including compliance with 22 internal controls and procedures, in coordination with TEGNA personnel, provided 23 however that if the sharing of TEGNA’s confidential information with certain 24 Nexstar employees is necessary to accomplish such reporting requirements, such 25 information must be maintained separately from Nexstar’s files and used solely for 26 those reporting requirements;
- 27 f. appoint or reappoint TEGNA officers as necessary for TEGNA to exercise 28 independent decision-making authority for retransmission matters, provided

1 however that Nexstar shall not appoint current Nexstar employees, or former 2 employees employed within the prior six months, as TEGNA officers and no 3 TEGNA officer shall be an officer of Nexstar; and

4 g. require that management of TEGNA adhere to the interim operating covenants set 5 forth in the Merger Agreement (Dkt. 63-4), in their entirety, and in the same manner 6 as applied pre-closing, provided however that TEGNA shall continue to have 7 authority concerning ordinary course contracts, including contracts concerning 8 retransmission consent, as provided by operating covenant 6.1(b)(xiii).

9 13. The provisions of this Order shall apply to each of Defendants’ directors, officers, agents, 10 and employees, and all persons acting on its behalf. A copy of this Order shall be furnished 11 by Defendants to each of their directors and officers.

12 14. Plaintiff [need not post security][shall post security in the amount of $_____ by 13 _____]. The bond amount requested by Defendants is not adequately supported by 14 the evidence, particularly in light of the parties’ agreement to adjust the preliminary 15 injunction and temporary restraining order to account for many of the concerns raised by 16 Defendants in their briefing. Dkt. 97.
